GRANNY'S STORY.

BY EMILY HUNTINGTON MILLER.

But one thing is down in my mem'ry So deep, it is sure to stay;

It was long ago, but it all comes back
As if it happened to-day. Here, stand by the window, laddies.

Just fifty-six years ago.

But I had my goodman beside me, And everything tidy and bright, When, all of a sudden, a signal Shot up through the murky night

And a single gun in the darkness Boomed over and over again, As if it bore in its awful tone

Then my goodman stooped and kissed me, And said, "It is but to die: Who goes with me to the rescue?"

And six noble lads cried "!!"

And what could we do but pray? So long, when at last we heard them

So long, when at last we heard them
Cheering faint, off the shore,
I thought I had died and gone to heaven,
And all my trouble was o'er.
And the white-faced women and children
Beemed like ghosts in my sight,
As the boats, weighed down to the water,
Came tossing into the light.

Eh, that was a heartsome thanksgiving, With sobbing and laughter and prayers; Our lade with their brown, dripping faces, And not a face missing from theirs.

And little we cared that the breakers

Were tearing the ship in their hold. There are things, if you weigh them fairly.
Will balance a mint of gold.

Goes down in the Gaspereau."

Yes, lads, I'm a poor old body, My wits are not over clear; can't remember the day o' the week,

Do you see, away to the right, A long black line on the water, Topped with a crest of white?

I mind 'twas a raw Thanksgiving, The sleet drove sharp as tuives, And most of us here at the harbor Were sailors' sweethearts and wives.

The shricks of women and men. And down to the rocks we crowded, Facing the icy rain, Praying the Lord to be their aid, Since human help was vain.

And crouching there in the tempest,
Hiding our faces away,
We heard them row into the blackness,

For you never can know how much dearer The one you love dearest can be, Till you've had him come back to you safely
From out of the jaws of the sea.

STILL UNDECIDED.

The country is still in the throes of anxiety on the election of Tuesday. The returns from the doubtful states are so meager and conflicting that it is impossible to predicate any estimates upon them. There seems to be no remedy except to wait and see what the future Gov. Latest advices indicate that Cullom who, with Culion, suffers from the Cooper vote, which went solidly for Steward and Hise. There are not returns sufficient, as yet, to determine the complexion of the legislature, though it is certain to be to erably close.

VEGETINE Is not a vile, nauseous compound, which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy which is sure to purify the blood and thereby restore the health.

VEGETINE s now prescribed in cases of Scrofnia and ther diseases of the blood, by many of the est physicians, owing to its great success a curing all diseases of this nature. VEGETINE

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by purging and creating a fictitions appe-tive, but assists nature in clearing and puri-fying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

VEGETINE Was tooked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent irlends and VEGETINE Instead of being a puffed-up medicine has worked its way up to its present astonishing success by socual merit in curing all diseases of the blood, of whatever nature.

Says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had falled Lyusited the labratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

MB. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sit—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefitted by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles, was restored to health and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sit—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent, my wife has used with great benefit;
For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness; these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.

Bly were also troubled. VEGETINE.

She was also troubled with Dyspepsia and

MR. H. R. STEYERS:
Dear Sir—Through the advice and earnest persuasion of Rev. E. S. Rest, of this place, I have been taking VEGETINE for Dyspepsia, of which I have suffered for years.
I have used only two bottles and already feel myself a new man.

Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on temselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being coxed by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.
